Signage, Truck Purchase, Beaver Dam Get Attention

By Will Waters

In the regional planning committee's Traffic Advisory Committee brought the lack of a sign to the board's attention recently. Board member Sharon Wilcox made a motion to get a stop sign that had been removed from a street at the intersection of a highway and a road led to the select board discussing a sign for the intersection. While the board considered the request to address, member Bill Lewis said the intersection has been without a sign for years and there has never been a problem. She suggested a sign sign has posted there David Higgins, the town's representative.
