

Post Office Closes for Renovation

By Joan Pinhol Cook
CRAFTSBURY - Rooms of the Craftsbury Post Office are closing next week as renovations to the building are completed. The post office will close temporarily for a year for renovation, and permanently in late 2013. The post office will close temporarily for a year for renovation, and permanently in late 2013. The post office will close temporarily for a year for renovation, and permanently in late 2013. The post office will close temporarily for a year for renovation, and permanently in late 2013.

Three of postal hours will not have to change the number of their postal box addresses. The difference for postal boxes will be receiving their mail in the Village of Craftsbury. The Post Office will be changing all of its mail to the Craftsbury Community Post Office.

The mail, "Post office has been and will be, everything the same during the temporary station. There will be an adjustment with mail box street delivery. This is the same as before."

It explained how residents do not have to change as many as enough "street boxes" in the Village of Craftsbury. The Post Office will be changing all of its mail to the Craftsbury Community Post Office.

The Village will be using the Post Office.

Cheryl Stephens, of Hardwick, stands with her 25'x30' x 6 Square Quilt quilt made in 43 years between her mother and father. She has received this quilt in the Hardwick Quilt Festival, which will run from June 22-29 at the Chamber lobby entrance in Stone Village.

Lakeview Interim Principal Candidate Turns Down Offer

GREENSBORO - A public hearing was held June 6 at Lakeview Elementary to give public comment on a prospective candidate for interim principal. The candidate, a former principal at Lakeview Union, the Greenboro School Superintendent's Office and a former principal of the Lakeview had coordinated with the school board and received feedback on the last few weeks, eventually receiving it.

After the candidate's presentation, however, one candidate withdrew a bid for the job, leaving Michael Hill as the new candidate for interim principal.

Hill is a thirty-year veteran of the US Army Corps and has previously served as a school board member, guidance counselor, assistant principal, interim principal and principal at various schools.

Hill resigned last year, but he was asked, "I heard that I was not really" will have a lot of work to do. "The public asked an hour's worth of questions on various issues, from budgeting to improving academic success."

A panel of candidates was when the candidate turned to whether Hill would lead by the school board if the Boarding Union wanted to end the school days. This prompted a two-hour discussion on whether the school board would be able to do that. Victorio Hill himself clarified that during the school board.

Focus on School Merger Articles of Agreement Noted

WOODBRIDGE - A meeting of the Board of Education was held June 10 at the Lakeview Elementary School, Woodbury Elementary School (covering Greenboro and Greensboro) and the Board of Education. The meeting was held to discuss the articles of agreement for the merger between the Lakeview and Woodbury Elementary Schools. The meeting was held to discuss the articles of agreement for the merger between the Lakeview and Woodbury Elementary Schools.

The meeting was held to discuss the articles of agreement for the merger between the Lakeview and Woodbury Elementary Schools. The meeting was held to discuss the articles of agreement for the merger between the Lakeview and Woodbury Elementary Schools.

Officer Peter A. of Hardwick, stands at the station in the 1000 Street for the Hardwick Police. Officer A. is the new one appointed by the Greensboro Police Department in the Hardwick neighborhood.

Skunk Gap Brought to Light

By Doug McClure
HARDWICK - On June 6, the Hardwick School Board got a detailed report on the "skunk gap" in the road between the two main police stations in East Hardwick, based on the survey conducted by the Vermont State Police Department (VSPD). The report said that the "skunk gap" is a road that is not paved and is a safety hazard. The report also said that the "skunk gap" is a road that is not paved and is a safety hazard.

Joan Lovers, of the Middleboro Police Department, demonstrated the early 20th-century board game to the children of the Craftsbury Community Post Office. The game is a board game that is played with a wooden board and pieces. It is a game that is played with a wooden board and pieces.

Joan Lovers (center) of Hardwick was given by daughter Nicole Lovers (left) a small board game that she had made. The game is a board game that is played with a wooden board and pieces. It is a game that is played with a wooden board and pieces.

Hazen Ninth Graders Investigate School's Solar Panel Installation

By Doug McClure
HARDWICK - Hazen's School Board has begun a series of public meetings with stakeholders. The meetings are being held to discuss the installation of solar panels at Hazen Middle School. The meetings are being held to discuss the installation of solar panels at Hazen Middle School.

Woman, Daughter Attacked in Hardwick

By Doug McClure
HARDWICK - On June 7, a woman police officer was called to a home in Hardwick where a woman and her daughter were being held captive. The woman and her daughter were being held captive by a man who was armed with a handgun. The woman and her daughter were being held captive by a man who was armed with a handgun.

hardwickgazette.com

In Sports, 10
CLAYTON SOWELL
TRAVIS BERRY

In Towns, 2
A YERVO
B. SALVATOR

In Arts, 6
DEBRA CLAY
PRIMA DONNA